TAPPED SILENT SENTINEL

Clarence Spaulding, who became a senior this quarter in the School of Forestry, was notified today by wire to Pullman, Washington, where he is part in a dual track meet between W.S.C. and Montana, of his selection for Silent Sentinel, men's senior honorary society.

Spaulding will be a three-letter man in track at the end of the present season, holding the state and Washington relay carnival records in the 129-yard hurdles. He is the retiring president of the Forestry club and a member of Druid, local honorary forestry fraternity. He served as assistant Aber Day Manager for the 1927 Aber day. He is a member of Phi Epsilon, men's national social fraternity.

KELLY AND MORRELL PASS SCREEN TESTS

Thirty Schools Visited; Ten Men Picked From Each; Final Decision Monday

By the good graces of the fates and the casting director of First National pictures, two University of Montana men may have a chance at the coveted trip to Hollywood, announced by College Humor and brought home to the campus by the visit of the movie outfit here recently. According to a dispatch to the Kaimin, William Kelly, a famous Montana football star, and Rowe Morrell, of Montana Masquers fame, are among the 40 men in the semifinal choice resulting from the screen tests of 320 American college men.

Final Decision Monday
The final decision on the 10 men who are to go to Hollywood will be made next Monday. The choice will be made by executives of First National pictures in conjunction with the important newspaper syndicate men, fan magazine and motion picture trade paper editors. The judging committee will comprise over a hundred persons, all qualified by experience to determine the best screen possibilities of these boys. If one of the Montana men is in the chosen list, the Kaimin will be notified next Monday night.

Thirty-two Schools Visited
The test campaign was started two months ago, with several crews of First National picture men canvassing the country in an effort to obtain 10 new faces for the movies. Thirty-two schools in all were visited and 10 men were picked from each of these. The representatives of the company visited the campus May 3 and 4. The party included a makeup man, camera man and director. At the time of the Montana tryouts, more than 100 men were on the improvised movie lot south of Simpkins hall. The afternoon of the first day was devoted to taking indoor shots of the candidates in the Little Theater. The following morning, outdoor full-length pictures were taken. Montana men represented were Rowe Morrell, William Kelly, Ed Chinske, Mike Belangie, Charles J. Hill, Jake Miller, Eddie Reeder, Bob Tierman, Bud Ellis and Charles Coleman.

When interviewed last night, both Kelly and Morrell had no definite idea as to how they were going to spend the first hundred thousand in the event that they should be appointed. In case either of the University men are chosen, they will leave for California shortly after the close of school. They will be given employment for a period of eight weeks at a favorable salary and at the end of this training period, will be given a contract if their work proves favorable. Expenses both ways and during the California stay will be paid by the company.

FORESTRY PROFS INSPECT N. P. PLANT AT PARADISE
J. H. Ramskill, instructor in the School of Forestry, went up to Paradise to inspect the Western preservation plant of the Northern Pacific railroad.

Mr. Ramskill was accompanied by Professor I. W. Cook, also of the School of Forestry. Both the instructors were especially interested in looking over the plant and making arrangements to take their classes there to study preservation methods.

HYGIENE CLASS TO TAKE PERSONAL HEALTH CHECK
Students in general hygiene, under Miss Leona Baumgartner, have started to take an inventory of their personal health conditions by filling out a health scale. Health is considered from both an objective and subjective point of view. Some of the data required will be taken from the records of physical examinations at the office of Mrs. A. L. LeClair, University health nurse. The scale used is prepared by the Teachers' college of Columbia University.

PROF. ROWE WILL LEAVE FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA
Dr. J. P. Rowe, professor of geology at the State University, will leave Monday on a trip to British Columbia, where he will do some geology work. Mr. Rowe will probably be gone a week or 10 days.

While on the trip Dr. Rowe plans to obtain some material for slides to be used in the Geology Department next year.

"Teeney" Babcock was a luncheon guest at the Sigma Chi house yesterday.

Sigma Delta Chi Grants Scholarship Award to Garver

Bill Garver, a senior in the School of Journalism, has been granted the 1927 Sigma Delta Chi scholarship award for Montana. This award carries with it a gold key, which may be procured by a successful candidate from the professional journalistic fraternity.

Recognition in scholastic standing went this year to students in 15 universities throughout the United States and Canada, including Wisconsin, Washington, Illinois, Oregon, Missouri and Montana. In order to qualify, a candidate must be a senior journalism student, candidate for a degree in a college or university in which a chapter of Sigma Delta Chi is located. He must have made at least a "B" average in all school subjects through his four years.

Garver is a member of the Missoula high school chapter of the National Honor society, and a member of Kappa Tau, local honorary scholarship fraternity at the State University. He has just succeeded Bob Alling as secretary and treasurer of the Montana chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, which office he will hold through the next school year.

Scribes Make Plans to Honor Dean Stone

Plans for Dean Stone night are rapidly being completed, and according to Aubrey Houston, chairman of arrangements, the picnic this year promises to be an even greater success than ever before. Already the greater portion of the journalism students have signed up to go and a nearly 100 per cent attendance of those taking work at the Shack is expected.

It is asked that everyone pay his 50-cents at the table in the shack before Wednesday morning, in order that food arrangements can be made. Letters have been sent out to all alumni of the school inviting them to attend Dean Stone night. This is a new plan and one which, it is thought, will be appreciated by the graduates. Dean Stone night was started several years ago as a means of honoring the Dean. Each year it has become more and more significant to the students until it is now the most cherished tradition of the shack.

PLANS FOR BARBECUE MADE BY FORESTERS

At the last Forestry club meet of the year, held last Wednesday evening, Andrew Krocchek was elected president; Howard Dix, vice-president; Merle Markham, secretary; John Emerson, treasurer. After the election "Lanky" Spaulding, ex-president, turned over the chair to Mr. Krocchek. A short business meeting followed and plans for the barbecue, to be held Sunday afternoon, were discussed.

Howard Dix was put in charge of the barbecue, and it was announced that all students in the Forestry school will be assessed 50 cents, excluding the seniors. The assessment will be levied whether the students attend or not. Cars belonging to the faculty and students, and the large truck will furnish the transportation up the Rattlesnake, where the affair will be held.

Mr. De Jarnette, a former student in the Forestry school, will act as chief cook and will be assisted by Krocchek.

The afternoon will be spent in eating, toasting, games, and a good time is promised to all who come—rain or shine.

Band Gives Concert in Campus Theater

Under the direction of Albert Hoelscher, the Grizzly band gave a concert in the Little Theater Tuesday night. This was the first public concert of the year. The program was varied with semi-classic and popular numbers. Gladys Price and Nan Walsh of the School of Music entertained with vocal numbers.

FOUNTAIN HAS BIG SALES

Soda fountain products proved to be very popular at the ASUM store during the Interscholastic track meet. Total sales of the store during the two meets amounted to about $400. This is approximately $100 more than last year.

FRANK B. LINDERMAN TO RECEIVE DEGREE

Famous Montana Pioneer Will Receive Doctor of Law Award From University

For the sixth time in the history of the University, the State University has seen fit to bestow the degree of honorary doctor of laws. During the commencement exercises of the 1927 graduating class on the afternoon of June 6, the announcement has been made that this degree has been bestowed upon Frank B. Linderman, trapper, cowboy, assayer, newspaper man, legislator and author, of Goose Bay, Montana.

Limited Schooling
Mr. Linderman never attended a high school or college, but he is the outstanding authority on Indian history, laws and legends. He made an intensive study of tribal life in the various sections of the west, through which he traveled during pioneer days. The trivial details of Indian life, with which he became intimately acquainted, that appear in his literary works, raise the level of his stories above that of those stories in which the authentic touch is so manifestly lacking.

Frank Linderman knows the Indians of Montana. He is thoroughly acquainted with the many tribes and is the personal friend of many of their chiefs and tribal leaders, whose names and deeds are a part of Montana history. One of his hobbies is tracing the innumerable customs of Indian life to their origin, and none of the legends that have been passed down through generations is new to him. He is an adopted member of the Sioux and Chippewa tribes.

Active in State
Mr. Linderman was active in state politics for years and served as a member of the state legislature and assistant secretary of state. He is the author of four books, several of them being collections of short stories about the Indians, and is now engaged in further literary work at his home on Goose Bay.

Charles Russell, Montana's famous cowboy artist, was the last recipient of the honorary degree of doctor of laws from the University.

AWS POSTPONES PICNIC; CAUSED BY HIGH WATER

Because of the high water prevailing in the Rattlesnake river at this time and the subsequent closing of Greenough cut to traffic by Chief of Police Ira Johnston, it has been decided that the AWS picnic will not be held during the coming week. The affair was to have taken place Tuesday, May 24, according to Marguerite Hughes, president, but the unusual conditions have made the postponement necessary.

WITHDRAWING STUDENTS MUST RECEIVE GRADES

Friday, May 20, is the end of the ninth week of the spring quarter, and at the end of that time any student withdrawing from a course must receive one of the passing grades if the work of the course has been completed. If the work has not been completed, the student may receive an incomplete grade, a condition, or a failure, according to the judgment of the instructor.

Coffee will be served in the dining room throughout the evening.

The department will be open to all visitors and everyone is invited to attend. No charge is to be made.

MASQUERS PRESENT PLAY IN LAKE CITY

Enthusiastic Crowd Grets Show in Reservation Town; Cars Encounter Trouble

Leaving Missoula Wednesday morning, the Montana Masquers journeyed to Polson by auto to present "The Goose Hangs High" for the last performance on this year's program. Mrs. Frank Cooney chaperoned the party, the members of which were entertained over night at the homes of Polson residents. The play was given in the Liberty theater, which was filled with enthusiastic auditors. Barty Webster and Evelyn Siderlin, who also made the trip, entertained with songs and piano numbers between acts of the play, and were heartily applauded.

Roads Bad

Because of bad roads, and the unsafe condition of the Jocko bridge, two of the cars had not returned to Missoula at a late hour last night. Those who came through yesterday reported that there was a guard stationed at the bridge to warn motorists of the danger in crossing.

Besides the cast of the play, the following people made the trip: Carl Glick, director of the Masquers, Mrs. Cooney, Doc Nelson, Barty Webster, and Evelyn Siderlin.

The play was presented in Polson under the auspices of the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. Because of the difficulty in arranging dates, the proposed four-day trip to the various lake cities was abandoned, and the Polson performance will conclude the Masquer offerings of major productions for the year.

On the way home yesterday, a group of the students who made the trip were guests of the sisters at the historic St. Ignatius mission. They report having spent a very interesting and enjoyable time at the mission, which is one of the very first establishments in the state.

High Water Delays Annual Tug o' War of Underclassmen

Art Burns, Bear Paw chief grizzly, said, "All frosh will be required to wear their green hats until the tug of war is held. In case the traditional event cannot be held, due to high water in the Missoula river, they must wear them until school is out."

The tug o' war, one of Montana's traditions, is usually held Friday of Interscholastic week, but was postponed this year because of the large supply of water in the Missoula river. The captains of both the sophomore and freshman teams considered it too dangerous to attempt at that time, and postponed the annual contest until the water mark of the river had fallen considerably. Warm weather, causing the snow to melt in the mountains, and frequent rains have made the river rise and consequently no decision can be reached as to when the struggle can be held.

Weather Conditions Cause Loss on Meets Held in Missoula

Tags are to be sold on the campus and in the business district of the town Monday and Tuesday to raise money to send the Grizzly track team to Corvallis and Los Angeles next week-end, and the one following. Tanans and Bear Paws will do the selling at the University, and the downtown district will be canvassed by Danta Hanson, Andy Cogswell and Burrit Smith. The tag days are being held under the direction of James Morrow, the recently elected business manager of the ASUM.

Weather Causes Loss

These tag days have been found necessary to send the Montana team to the conference meets because, as a consequence of the bad weather, the athletic board has fallen behind on the income from the meets and games which it was required to have to make its revenues and expenditures balance each other at the close of the year. As it is, the poor attendance at athletic events has caused the expenses of the board to amount to $1,301.00 more than its assets, as they will stand at the end of the track season. Some of this deficit may be defrayed by carrying bills over until next year, and by having some of the equipment left for use another season, but nevertheless, the board's deficit will still approximate the $800 mark unless money is raised in some manner. It is to lower the amount of that deficit, and by doing so to furnish the wherewithal for the track men to travel to Oregon and California, that the tags will go on sale Monday morning.

They will be sold for at least 50 cents apiece, and students or sportsmen may pay as much more for one as they wish.

John Ryan to Speak at Art Studio Tuesday

John Ryan will give a talk in the Fine Arts studio next Tuesday night at 7:30. He will speak on photography in general and will also explain and discuss the exhibition of photographs, done by him and Ace Woods, which is now on display.

The exhibit consists of 30 or 40 pictures which represent a variety of branches of photography rather than a purely numerical exhibition of prints.

The various subjects included are: Portraits, news photos, interiors, exteriors, scenery, types of finishes, lighting effects, enlargements and amateur pictures.

Open Discussion

The discussion will be open to everyone, and the display, which will be in the studio until next Wednesday, will be open every day to visitors.

In addition to the photographic display of Ace Woods and John Ryan, the Rider art prize display is still in place, as well as the work done by the classes on the cover design for the booklet which is being put out by the Chamber of Commerce to advertise western Montana.

HONORARY SOCIETIES MAKE HIGHEST MARKS

Statistics from the registrar's office concerning scholarship for the winter quarter of 1927 at the State University show that members of honorary organizations on the Montana campus have better scholastic averages than those of University men and women.

The average for all University women was 21.88, while that for Tanans, sophomore women's organization, was 23.05 and Penetralla, senior women's honorary, 22.50. Men students at the University averaged 18.45, while Bear Paw, sophomore men's organization, totaled 21.48, and Silent Sentinel, senior men's honorary, averaged 24.72.

Kappa Tau, honorary scholastic fraternity, composed of both men and women, made an average of 37.25.

The averages of students in activities are as follows:
Freshman basketball 18.10
Varsity basketball 15.14
Dramatics 22.63
"M" Club 18.06
Debate 26.39

Yes--or No?

IT WAS hardly a year ago on a baked clay track at Palo Alto, California, that two Montana Grizzlies showed their heels to a field of the greatest athletes in the west. Arnold Gillette and Russell Sweet were thrilling the crowd that gathered in the Stanford stadium by breaking three Pacific Coast conference records. Sweet sprinted to the finish of the 100-yard dash ahead of the best sprinters in the west to set a new record in that event, then led the field for the major portion of the 220, only to pull a tendon and fall.

Then as if coming out of the clear sky, Arnold Gillette, Montana distance runner, sprinted to the finish at the end of the mile run to set a new record in that event and with but half an hour's rest and a lump of sugar tucked under the corner of his tongue he trotted out upon the field and set a new record in the two-mile run, a feat that, to the crowd, seemed almost impossible. Then that same little individual went east to Chicago, minus his running mate who was doctoring a sore leg, and after running second against the country's best milers on a track ankle deep in mud, came back half an hour later to win the national intercollegiate two-mile title for Montana.

Russell Sweet will carry Montana's colors no more, but Captain Arnold Gillette is still with us and intent on breaking his own records at Corvallis and Los Angeles. Then it is his intention of slipping up to Chicago and taking another national title for Montana. And besides "Arnie," Jim Stewart has men such as Clarence Spaulding, Clarence Coyle and Tom Davis, who are capable of turning in good races at any meet in the country, but the responsibility of sending these runners to Corvallis, Los Angeles and Chicago rests entirely with the Montana student body.

Inclement weather has caused severe losses on the track meets held so far this season, and the athletic board is unable to stand the expense of sending the Grizzly team to the various meets. Early next week a tag day will be held on the campus and downtown in order to raise enough to make it possible for these men to compete against the nation's best. The Kaimin looks for a good return on the tag sales next week.

BACK in the days when we were smaller, younger, more idealistic and less childish, we used to watch "the old cat die." We'd pump the old creaking swing high into the air, straining every muscle in our chubby little body, then sit and swing, with the breeze whistling past our ears and our stomach feeling the pangs of emptiness on every descent. We clung tightly to the rope on either side of us and sat expectantly—waiting for "the old cat to die."

It was a melancholy feeling, waiting for "the old cat to die." We had put so much into the ascent, we had pumped until our young brow was damp with perspiration and our heart beat tattoos on our ribs, then we rested, and let "the old cat die." Tired from our exertion and waiting only to gain back our breath and strength to try again, we'd sit with childish pride and chatter to ourselves about that twig up yonder we had been barely able to touch with the tip of our naked toe. Then with renewed energy we'd try again, this time to touch the one above it.

So here we sit, waiting for "the old cat to die," chuckling with childish glee at our collegiate accomplishments, but forgetting those twigs so high above our own attainments, that others have touched and we have not even come close—they matter not—we have had the thrill that comes with trying; we have spent our strength in our efforts and wait with as much enthusiasm as of yore to begin again. It is a satisfying feeling, this waiting for "the old cat to die."

Backlash

ON ONE of "those days" when the water runs cold and the trout are making valiant offers at almost microscopic flies, and you bring back the rod for a real cast and then the line comes singing back into the reel and you comment in un-nice language at the perversity of the world in general for the next half hour while you untangle the villainous snarl—

Strictly speaking, we weren't fishing last Tuesday but the results were all the same. We were casting about on the campus in search of something interesting, when some misguided individual stopped to inform us about a certain well-known campus happening with some added information of that nasty sort which gossip is prone to create. Now why did that person have to drag out all that old stuff again? We knew, or thought we knew, what had happened and had not the slightest wish to haul it out for consideration again. What perverse devil of human nature will cause a man to keep resurrecting those things which the ordinary individual wants to forget?

For some reason or other the fish failed to bite for the rest of the afternoon. We wish some genius would invent an anti-backlash device for certain people.

Co-Eds Saved From Bigamy Charges!

"When the boy friend gives his girl a fraternity pin, the couple are not necessarily engaged," according to the findings of a mock trial held at the University of Oregon. What is the world coming to? We used to think, in our simple way, that engagements led to marriage, of course, and that "the hanging of the pin" indicated engagement. But in this case, a girl with a lot of fraternal friends may be decorated to look as though she had won the pins as indications of distinguished service.

SPRINKLER

Freshmen Find Puzzle in Old Spray

Just try to find out which way that sprinkler is turning!

The maintenance department at the State University has placed the large sprinkler on the oval again and once more the student body is bewildered. Groups of interested freshmen spend most of the time arguing among themselves over which way it revolves and many upperclassmen continue their observations of last year, hoping to be able to solve the mystery this spring. The maintenance department refuses to put out any information on the subject so it is up to the student body to investigate the phenomenon more thoroughly. Anyway, it is fun to watch the large spray and it does keep the grass on the oval nice and green.

The sprinkler was constructed by Paul Dornblaser and Teddy Kessler a number of years ago.

MATH CLUB TO HOLD PICNIC

SWIM OUT

You're All Wet, Xerxes

Overhead, all was grey. Not the cool, calm greyness of mist. Not the swirling, clutching, nebulous fingers of fog. No, not these; but the wet, numbing, paralyzing, hopeless grey of clouds. Clouds that settled heavily, chillingly, on the spirit as well as on the body, clouds that wept like tortured banshees, and the slithering swishing of the drops seemed to whisper of forlorn hopes, of unrealized wishes, of defeated ambitions. They seemed to keen silently of heartbreak, of despair.

Underfoot, the globules of sick soul-stuff, pattering suddenly, broke into a shimmering spray of melancholy moisture. The grass, the trees, the flowers, the very ground seemed to exude more water to add to the teary torrent that flooded the earth. The drops on the face were like the wet kisses of dead children. The soul was sick at the downpour. And still it came, dripping, drenching, deadly.

In other words: It rained.

Oregon Coach Drills Football Warriors

University of Oregon, Eugene.—Spring football drill was ordered here last night by John J. McEwan, Oregon grid coach, for ends and backs. The drill will last until new formations, which McEwan has worked out in the last few days, have been tested and either perfected or discarded.

Owing to the limitations placed upon the shift at the recent meeting of the national rules committee, Coach McEwan has discarded that type of play and will rely even more than ever next fall upon the forward pass. Linemen may be called to work later, but this is doubtful, as McEwan worked out his line system in a special three-weeks practice session held earlier this year.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT FINISHES RESEARCH

Preparation of Grammar Study in High Schools Above Par

According to a bit of research work completed recently through questionnaires sent out to English teachers in the state, it has been found that "teachers of English in third class schools stagger under preposterously heavy responsibility" while "English teachers in country and first-class high schools in the state are in general well off." Information as to the situation in schools of the state are published in this month's English Notes, issued regularly by the English department and sent out to schools in Montana.

Gather Statistics

Some weeks ago Professor Merriam of the English department sent out bulletins to all state high school English teachers in an effort to discover conditions under which such instructors work. Mrs. Muckler, assistant in English, tabulated the results sent in and interesting figures can be had on the subject.

Among some of the conclusions drawn are: 1. With five subjects a teacher may not be overworked, but the subjects are certainly being underrighted. 2. Reading 50 papers on five subjects is not so exhausting as reading 50 papers on the same subject. 3. Composition teaching is incomplete without conferences and only four teachers in 10 in Montana hold regular individual sessions. 4. Many teachers of English, 45 per cent of them, have not "majored" in the subject they are teaching.

California President Dies

Berkeley, Calif.—(IP)—Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California from 1899 to 1919, has died in Vienna. The former university president was author of a number of books, one of the most important of which was his "Life of Alexander, the Great."

"Dumb" Author "Comes Back"

Rochester, N. Y.—(IP)—George S. Brooks, co-author with Walter B. Lister of "Spread Eagle," a new play now running in New York, was dismissed from the University of Rochester in 1914 because he failed to pass freshman English composition.

AUSTIN EXPEDITION TO EXPLORE NORTH

Cambridge, Mass.—(By Harvard Crimson—Intercollegiate Press)—An unusual expedition, one in which birds of the northern regions of the western hemisphere will be studied, will be led into Labrador regions this summer by O. L. Austin, Jr., a graduate student in botany in Harvard university.

The expedition, to leave New Rochelle, N. Y., on June 18, will spend three months on the east coast of Labrador, returning to the United States early in October.

It is the purpose of the Austin party to make a bird census of the Labrador coast. The effect of the relentless bird slaughter of the natives on bird life will be carefully studied. Among the birds which will be studied are the great black backed gull, glaucous gull, herring gull, puffins, razor billed auk, black guillemot, and arctic tern.

Will Capture Birds

Young birds will be captured, banded and then released. Formerly bird bands were made of aluminum, but the ones used by the Austin party will be made of rust proof metal.

In addition to these investigations, moving pictures of the birds and breed Eskimos who inhabit the region will be taken.

Although during most of the time spent in the north the party will live in the ship "Ariel," some days will be spent on the mainland and islands. On land the men will hide behind blinds to note the habits and characteristics of the birds.

Expedition Finds Temple

Chicago.—(IP)—A temple estimated to be at least 5,000 years old, has been dug up in Mesopotamia by the Field Museum-Oxford university joint expedition, according to word received here. According to dispatches, the temple was dedicated to the earth goddess of Harsagkemma, was constructed by the Sumerians, and was rebuilt by Nabonidus, king of the Babylonians, some 2,500 years later. A number of valuable finds were made, according to stories reaching here.

Katherine Spence will spend the week-end in Thompson Falls.

"Bud" Ainsworth will visit his home at Thompson Falls over the week-end.

Martha Dunlap will visit her home at Thompson Falls over the week-end.

Akron U Paper Wins Scripps-Howard Cup

Delaware, Ohio.—(IP)—At the annual meeting of the Ohio College Newspaper association here last week, the Buchtelite, student paper of Akron university, was awarded the Scripps-Howard cup for the best college paper in the state.

In presenting the cup the judges declared that they had given the cup to the Buchtelite, of which Sherrill Leonard is editor, because "of the handicaps under which it was published, the attractiveness of make-up, the sobriety of handling of news, initiative in handling editorials, and because it presented the same type of news and feature stories that make copy for metropolitan newspapers." Twenty-four college papers were entered in the contest which lasted for 12 weeks.

The old Forestry building at the University of Washington, which has been used as a museum for a number of years, has been condemned. The building was erected for the A. Y. P. exposition in 1909.

OBERLIN STUDENTS MUST QUIT SERENADING CUSTOM; DISTURBS PUBLIC'S SLUMBER

Oberlin, Ohio.—(IP)—Oberlin college students are complaining that romance is dead here. This, the first co-educational college in the country, has had as one of its most cherished traditions, the serenading by college men of co-eds in the middle of the night. But when several dormitory matrons and village residents recently protested that their slumbers were too often disturbed by the singers, the college asked village authorities to enforce an ancient ordinance against disturbing the peace after 11 o'clock at night.

MONTANA IS LUCKY

Columbia, Ill.—(IP)—Students of John Wesley college have been barred from holding dances, and the use of liquor or tobacco is tabooed. Competitive athletics and fraternities are also barred.

UTAH SORORITIES SPEND $3,000 DURING RUSHING WEEK, CHRONICLE FINDS

Salt Lake City, Utah.—(IP)—An informal investigation carried on by the Utah Chronicle, undergraduate newspaper at the University of Utah, has revealed the fact that some $3,000 is to be spent by sororities at the university to pay expenses of the annual "rushing" week. In an editorial, the newspaper asserts that this sum is a conservative estimate.

Hawaii Observes Birthday

Honolulu, Hawaii.—The University of Hawaii recently celebrated its 20th birthday in Honolulu, when general festivities which included athletic events and exhibits took place.

Juniors of the University of Washington defeated both soph and freshman class football teams, to earn the class championship. Seniors had no team.

Co-Eds Expelled

Goucher College, Baltimore.—Four freshmen women have been suspended for 10 days by the executive council for smoking in the dormitories. Cigarettes, the Charleston, and radios have been forbidden in the dormitories.

This Pen Must Stay in Perfect Order or we make it good without charge

The custom of sending Gifts to Graduates has now been extended by general accord to include those in the lower classes who have manifested sufficient industry to pass their final exams.

To know what to give, one needs but observe the students' own expressions of preference for the Parker Duofold Pen and Pencil.

To have earned the favor of the younger generation is our reward for serving it with studied personal interest. We have lifted the frowns from student brows [among others] by giving the world a writing pair that are inspirations to work with and beauties to possess.

All those in favor of owning, or giving the finest—whether for Graduation, Birthday or Wedding Gifts, or for prizes at Bridge or Golf—will signify by stepping in to the nearest Parker pen counter. The first thing to look for is the imprint, "Geo. S. Parker," on the barrels. Then nobody will be disappointed.

BIG TRACK SQUAD DEPARTS TO BATTLE STRONG COUGARS

Montana Concedes Staters Ten Points Through Coyle's Loss

To uphold a three-year Grizzly record of not losing a dual meet, one of the largest squads in years to make a dual track meet trip, left Missoula Thursday.

Those are the outstanding features of the Cougar-Grizzly clash at Pullman this afternoon.

Coach Jim Stewart with Manager Cowan and 22 Grizzly tracksters left yesterday morning for Pullman, Washington, where they will tangle with the Cougars in a dual meet this afternoon.

The Montana track squad is heavily handicapped by the loss of Clarence Coyle, who is a valuable point-getter in the sprints and pole vault. His loss means the concession of at least 10 points to the Staters. Clarence Spaulding is sufficiently recovered from a knee injury to make the trip. Coach Stewart expects to have a tough time with the Cougars, who recently defeated Idaho by one point in a dual meet, but feels that he has a chance to win by a few points.

Captain Gillette is expected to have a hard race in the two-mile which will be the only event he will enter. Samples, T. Davis and Kain will carry the brunt of the Grizzly attack in the sprints. Spaulding is due to lower his time in the high hurdles as well as carry off the honors in the 220 low hurdles.

Barkes Adams is to be used in both the half and mile runs, having shown ability to run the latter in rather fast time. Baker is Montana's only entry in the high jump, and Whitcomb in the shot put. The mile relay team was not definitely decided before the squad left.

The men who made the trip and the events they will enter are:

Two-mile—Captain Gillette, Hanson.

Mile run—K. Davis, Gaughan, B. Adams.

880-yard run—C. Lysel, M. Haines, B. Adams.

440-yard dash—T. Davis, D. Davis, Staunton.

220-yard dash—Samples, T. Davis, Kain.

100-yard dash—Samples, T. Davis, Kain.

120 high hurdles—Spaulding.

220 low hurdles—Spaulding, E. Haines.

Broad jump—Haber, Kain, Miller.

High jump—Baker.

Pole vault—Miller.

Javelin—Pearce, Bassey.

Shot put—Whitcomb.

Discus—Shults, Harmon.

Mile relay—(undecided).

The squad returns Saturday morning on the Northern Pacific at 8 o'clock.

JUNIOR WOMEN WIN INTER-CLASS GAME

In the second game of the women's inter-class baseball tournament, the second frosh team was defeated by the first frosh team Tuesday night.

Wednesday afternoon the juniors beat the sophs by a score of 14 to 4.

The game between the juniors and first frosh team, which was to have been played Thursday night, has been postponed on account of rain.

Elsie Brown and Agnes Nugent have been umpiring games in the absence of Miss Bigelow, and Maureen Desmond is acting as scorer.

SPORT GLIMPSES

Big doubleheader this afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Grizzly ball diamond. Grizzly vs. Bobcat.

Washington State vs. Montana in a dual track meet at Pullman.

Novice track meet in which the freshman men who will win their uniforms for the 1927 track season will be chosen.

Whitman college defeated Washington State college by a score of 3-2. Good pitching and poor fielding aided the Missionaries. Mitchell allowed the Whitman crew only two hits, but a single, two errors and a wild pitch in the third inning lost the game. Webster also hurled a nice game. He did not allow a hit until the fifth inning. Aubrey of the Cougars got a circuit drive in the sixth, while a hit batsman and two singles gave them another run in the ninth.

Coach Dean Cromwell, of the University of Southern California, has named sixteen track athletes to defend the Trojans' 1925 and 1926 title at the National Intercollegiate track and field meet at Philadelphia, May 27 and 28. His crew will make a hurried trip back home so as to be able to compete in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate meet June 3 and 4.

James Demers, Sandpoint, Idaho, scholastic javelin thrower, broke the world's record last Saturday with a heave of 200 feet 2 inches.

Red Gomillion, pitcher for a Texas independent team, is supposed to have set a new baseball record. He has scored five shutouts and 92 strikeouts in the last eight games. In the last game that he pitched he fanned 15 men, getting at least one in each inning.

Washington State college won a double track meet from the University of Idaho Saturday. The Varsity won by a close score to 66-65. The Cougar Kittens easily vanquished the Vandal Babes, 95 1-3-35 2-3.

Washington university won a dual meet from the University of Oregon by a score of 77-54. Montana runners have bettered the time in all of the races but they would have been outclassed in all of the field events except the pole vault.

In a dual meet with the Los Angeles Athletic club, the University of Southern California broke the world's record for the half-mile relay. They ran the event in 1:26. The old mark was 1:27.2, set by the New York Athletic club team at Pasadena in 1921.

NOVICES WILL HOLD TRACK MEET TODAY

Men Not on Traveling Squad or Varsity May Enter; Will Be Fast

Part of the novice meet program will be run off this afternoon, in order to give more time to Saturday's contestants, who are scheduled to compete in more than one event. The pole vault, javelin, 880 and 220 low hurdles will be the four events on the afternoon schedule, starting at 4 o'clock.

This meet is open to all men in the University, who are not on the traveling squad or Varsity.

Those participating in today's meet will probably be: Parks and Burke in the pole vault. Both men have reached 11 feet. Rankin and Mario will compete in the javelin, with Rankin holding the longest throw. In the 880-yard run, Reiner and Brannon will be the chief runners, both having made the distance in required time. Stevingson is expected to equal, if not lower, his time in the 220 low hurdles, having made 25.6 seconds in his last performance, with Priest and Fisher competing.

Saturday's Events

The events for Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock: 100-yard dash, high jump, shot put, mile run, 220-yard dash, 120 high hurdles, broad jump, discus throw, 440-yard dash, half mile relay.

Entries have been completed in the relay. For the frosh, Hill, Stevingson, Woodworth, Thomas and Reiner will compose the team, while Keyes, Parks, Donlon, Flynn, Snow and Garlington will make up the other relay. Coach Adams intends to see how fast the freshmen can travel in this event for he has several men who can run the 220 in exceptionally fast time.

The meet promises to be rather fast as there are several yearlings who can keep pace with Varsity runners in various events, if not faster.

FORESTERS WIN FLAG FOR DIAMOND FEAT

The Forestry club received a copper and gold banner from the Physical Education department after defeating the Pharmacists last Saturday afternoon. This victory proclaimed the Foresters the champions of the baseball season, among the schools of the campus.

The banner will be permanently placed in the Forestry school library, along with the other various treasures of the school. This banner is awarded yearly to the winner of the inter-school baseball contest by the Physical Education department.

Clapp Gives Graduation Address

President C. H. Clapp drove to Ronan yesterday afternoon to deliver the commencement address at the joint graduation exercises which the Ronan, Charlo and St. Ignace high schools held there last evening.

Mrs. Jean Dalke was a dinner guest at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house last night. Mrs. Dalke has just returned from Chicago, where she was called on account of the death of her son-in-law.

TWO BALL GAMES ARE ON TAP FOR TODAY

This afternoon's big racket is: Bobcat meets Grizzly in state championship double-header on the local diamond at 2 o'clock.

Rain caused the postponement of yesterday's battle to today, so now you have the thrills of a pair of baseball tilts packed into one afternoon. Montana State has Lynn and Babcock to send against the Grizzlies, while Montana has Rafferty and Brown to face the Bobcats.

It will be like all other afternoons when old, bitter rivals mix—lots of action with plenty of scratching and growling.

Be in the smoke of battle at two bells, and help Major Milburn's ball tossers emerge with their first two triumphs this season.

DIAMOND WARRIORS UNABLE TO COMPETE

Rain Causes Postponement of the First of a Two-Game Ball Series

True to his early season form, J. Pluvius ran wild again and put a stop to any notions the Bobcats and Grizzlies may have had in the way of playing a baseball game, or having a little innocent fun such as college gentry are wont to do, yesterday. This fellow Pluvius has wept copiously since the advent of the spring athletic season, and yesterday he broke down and cried hysterically, "There'll be no children's hour today."

Because of Pluvius' capers, the Grizzlies and Bobcats are forced to stage a double-header this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Big Valery Glynn, over-size feline pitcher, is ready to go against the Grizzlies and hurl the onion in such deceptive and baffling fashion that the Bozemanites may walk off with a victory. His mate, Babcock, another pitcher of parts, is also ready and willing to deal out large gobs of despair and gloom to Milburn's proteges.

Frosh on Team

However, the Bobcat diamond legion is composed mainly of frosh. Among these verdant ones, there are a few stellar performers.

The Bozemanites are depending on their pitchers to pull: 1.—The fat out of the fire, 2.—victory from the jaws of defeat, 3.—fast one. Whether or not they succeed may be told more accurately when the gongdoilers from Bozeman paddle on to the field to engage the web-footed Grizzlies. Both teams will cast their bread upon the waters this afternoon in more ways than one. We don't remember what the Biblical character received after casting the staff of life on the water, but it must have been soggy. (To be continued in our next.???)

OLD HALL TO CONTAIN PHYSICS DEPARTMENT

Offices Will Be on First Floor and Laboratories in Basement

Craig hall basement and the first floor will hold the entire Department of Physics. At the beginning of next fall quarter, the physics majors will take up their work in the old dormitory, according to G. D. Shallenberger, professor of physics.

"The general plan," said Mr. Shallenberger, "is that the offices and lecture rooms are to be on the first floor, while the six laboratories shall be located in the basement. The general physics laboratory will occupy the space which has heretofore been occupied by the cafeteria. This room will be especially adapted to this work, as it is large and the light is good. It will take care of a class of 30."

Laboratories

The optical laboratories have been designed with the needs of this kind of work in mind. It will be provided with booths so that the students will not interrupt each other's work. The electrical laboratory has been wired for different types of circuit, to permit various types of experiments being carried on simultaneously.

The heat laboratory will be provided with the necessary equipment for the carrying on of investigation in this field. The research laboratory will occupy the northwest corner of the basement. It will be provided with piers, which will permit the use of intensely delicate galvanometers, and other instruments which have a high degree of measurement.

In the basement is located, also, a shop which will be equipped with machines which are necessary in making and repairing apparatus. It will also contain a storage battery vault and a large switchboard, which will be used in the distribution of the various currents to the different rooms.

X-Ray Room

A dark room and an X-ray room will also be located in the basement. The lecture room will have a seating capacity of about 45. It will be provided with a lecture desk, electric circuit, vacuum, pressure lines, and water supply which are necessary in demonstrating the more interesting phenomena of physics. The storage space for equipment used in the lecture room will be located on the first floor, thus making it unnecessary to carry equipment back and forth from the basement storerooms.

The library will occupy the middle portion of the south part of the first floor. The school, completed, will be one of the finest in the University.

FAVORABLE COMMENT GIVEN BY ENGLISH INSTRUCTORS OF ORIGINAL PRODUCTION

Missoula's entry of an original one-act play in the inaugural one-act play contest during Interscholastic last week brought much favorable comment from campus and state educators. H. G. Merriam, in discussing "The Old Question," written by Mary Lee of Missoula county high school, said, "Most original high school plays are interesting to read, but are not so good when it comes to acting them on the stage, but this one played well."

"It's an encouraging sign to see the high schools take so much interest as to go about producing and acting their own plays," said Carl Glick, University dramatic coach and instigator of this new track week feature. He believes high schools will make a special effort toward more of this sort of thing next year. It is thought that there will be an interstate organization of teachers to foster the idea of original play producing.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Grande, visiting instructors during track week, stated at the luncheon for English and debate teachers, that "the new Little Theater movement is a most interesting and vital activity added in years to Interscholastic."

FORESTRY STUDENTS TAKE EARLY EXAMS; HAVE JOBS WHICH COMMENCE JUNE 1

All students enrolled in the School of Forestry will take their final examinations at the last class period of the course. This means that the foresters will have entirely completed their spring quarter's work by June 3.

Since all of the students, excluding the seniors of the school, should report on duty for their summer's work in the field by June 1, it is imperative that they get to work as soon after the first as is possible.

Some of the exams will probably be given before Friday, June 3, in order to make them full three-hour examinations. Arrangements are being made by Dr. J. E. Kirkwood, head of the Department of Botany, and Dean T. C. Spaulding, to avoid conflicts in the schedule.

Maddock Will Address Students

W. E. Maddock, head of the Department of Education, has gone to Bureka and Troy, where he will give commencement addresses on "What Is an Education." He will return Monday.

Reynolds Thompson of Twin Bridges is a campus visitor this week.

Its dead body may perhaps be lying beside a dark river, whose waters beat a mournful dirge.

Perhaps it reposes in a forsaken farmhouse, with no one to notice and bring justice to bear.

It may be abandoned in someone's clothes-closet, smothered under the weight of winter coats and clothes hastily thrown off.

Or it may rest in a fraternity house, where its dead, stuffed body receives reverent treatment.

At any rate, the Kappa Deltas want to know who so gently "removed" the Grizzly from their porch during track

Students Handle Business

Columbus, Ohio.—(IP)—When students at Ohio State university decided to own and operate their own book store, private book concerns brought suit against them in the state courts on the grounds that their business would interfere with private enterprise. The state supreme court thought otherwise, and has given the students permission to sell their own books themselves.

The crew drive to send the University of Washington's varsity and junior varsity crews east has been successfully completed.
